About our Fuel Surcharge

There are many factors influencing the price of fuel in Canada. Fuel is a considerable variable cost in armoured transportation services and a fuel surcharge is used to help manage volatility in prices.

The average market price of diesel in Canada is reviewed quarterly, and will be reported on Brinks.ca approximately two weeks prior to the effective date. Effective dates are the first day of every quarter:

- January 1st
- April 1st
- July 1st
- October 1st
